LESSONS FROM EXODUS

when life with God gets dangerous

INTRODUCTION

In week two of our Lessons from Exodus series, Pastor Jesse walks us through Exodus 7-12 focusing on the impact of the Israelites' bondage and journey from Egypt when Pharaoh set them free. Together we're assured that as God calls us to take scary steps toward freedom, He will lead us on paths that are right for us, right where we are. Amidst the trouble and danger we can encounter in our lives, our freedom continues to rest in God leading us well.

DISCUSSION

1. Has there been a time in your life when God led you on a roundabout path? What did the journey teach you that you wouldn't have learned if the path had been clearer or easier?
2. Read 1 Peter 1:6-7. When you encounter confusion and danger, how can this verse be an encouragement to you?
3. Read Romans 6:6-7. Just like the Israelites, God set us free from our bondage. Do you believe God can set you free from the sin patterns in your life right now? Why or why not?
4. What scary, faithful steps might God be calling you to take toward freedom? If you've been freed from a sin pattern with God, what did it take? How is it impacting your life today?

TAKE ACTION

Spend time reflecting, praying, and resting in Moses' words from Exodus 14:13-14:

1. Do not be afraid. In every circumstance, God is with you and for you.
2. Stand firm. As we pursue God, we can trust He will support the steps ahead of us.
3. The Lord will fight for you. He knows your story, your need, and your circumstances.
4. Be still. Your freedom continues to rest in God leading you well.
